CT600

This service provides an online version of form CT600 Company - Short Tax Return.

The only Supplementary Pages you can use with the CT600 Short and this service are:

- loans to participators by close companies (form CT600A), and
- charities and community amateur sports clubs (form CT600E), and
- the disclosure of tax avoidance schemes (form CT600J)

You should have your tax computation on hand to help you complete the boxes.

Please remember that the deadline by which a company has to file its Company Tax Return is 12 months after the end of the accounting period.

This section needs to be completed if

- the company is controlled by five or fewer participators (or by any number of participators if the company is a limited liability partnership), and
- the company has made a loan or advance in the return period to an individual participator.

You will not be able to use this service if (unusually)

- you are filing your return late, and
 - you need to claim relief for a loan repaid more than nine months and one day after the end of the return period.
- Answering 'Yes' to any of the questions below will provide the appropriate section for reporting loans made in the period which were not also repaid in the period.

Transactions in the Bank reconciliation sheets can be used to extract this information.
Did the company make any loans to participators during the return period?
